Jacobsen scored and Niles reached third base. Hemphill and Pickering got bases on balls, and Wallace sent two more homewith a single to center. The blunder demoralized the players, and although they rallied in the eighth and put Jacobsen went clear over to the pavilion. Jacobrallied in the eighth and put Jacobsen out of the box, it was too late

Browns Get Runs.

The run getting did not begin until the third inning, when the Browns sent three men across the plate. Jacobsen struck out, but when Blankenship muffed the ball he beat the throw to first. No-body covered the initial sack on Niles' bunt and Anderson's throw went to the the attendance good. The score: pavilion, Jacobsen scoring and Niles racing around to third. Hemphill and Pickering walked, filling the bases. Wallace's safe grounder past second scored Niles and Hemphill. Stone sacrificed. Yeager grounded to Schlafty and Pickering was out at the plate, Wallace taking third on pavilion, Jacobsen scoring and Niles rac-

BALTIMORE HORSE SHOW.

Special to The Washington Herald. Baltimore, May 13.-William P. Riggs, treasurer and prime promoter of the Baltimore Horse Show Association, and his assistants are busy with the arrangements for the annual show to be held at the Elkridge Kennels, on Charles-Street avenue on May 23, 24, and 25. More attention will be given this year than formerly to the hunting, jumping, and saddle classes. This is due to two causes. First, the international horse show to be held in London next month will draw largely from the harness classes in this country, and then again visitors to the Baltimore shows-being out-of-door events-have displayed a keener interest
